

Vivid Color Theme - HTML

Editing Template to different color theme

There is a way to change major color theme to bring different feeling and look about the website. This is an example of three static web pages using the same html codings. The black one is the original template, then changed it to blue and yellow. The 3D look used several layers of background colors adjusted the gradient, to give depth to the content away from the background...